STEPS TO TAKE

Step 1: Log in to the email account of the email address you submitted for PayPal registration. PayPal would have sent you three (3) email messages.

Step 2: Open the confirm your email address email message, scroll down, and click on Confirm Email Address. You will be redirected to the PayPal login page enter your PayPal account's email address and password and hit on login. A success message will be prompted on the next webpage informing you that your email address is successfully confirmed. Go back to the email inbox.

Step 3: Open we need additional information from your email message, scroll down, and click on Complete Your Information. You will be redirected to your PayPal account (if you are not logged in yet, you will be prompted to log in), and probably you might be asked for additional information, but in most cases, you will receive a success message that you have provided all information required. Go back to your email inbox.

Step 4: Open the business setup email message, scroll down, and click on the Blue Button. You will be redirected to your PayPal account. In the webpage opened up for you, you will see two (2) sub-headings, payment setup, and business setup. If you are integrating PayPal on your website, then configure the payment settings under the Payment Setup bar. Click on the Business Setup bar, click on confirm your business name; enter the standard and long version of your business name in their respective field, and hit on the Blue Button. If you have a USA bank account, you can click on add bank account, and follow the onscreen instruction to link it to your PayPal, but it's optional.

Step 5: Click on Summary in your PayPal account Interface. You will see an alert telling you to link your credit or debit card, click on it. Enter your card number, card type, CVV number, and expiry date in their respective field, then click on Link Card. (N.B: Link either your MasterCard or Visa debit card). PayPal will deduct $1.95 from the bank account linked to the card you submitted. Thereafter, your bank will send you a debit alert regarding the debit transaction initiated by PayPal, in the debit description, you will find a four (4) digit number preceded by PP; enter that four (4) digit number in your PayPal account to verify your PayPal account. (If you don't receive any debit alert from your bank, then check your bank statement or exercise patience. Also, the money debited by PayPal would be refunded back to your account)

Step 6: Wait for 24 – 48 hours before using your PayPal account for any transaction.

HOW TO WITHDRAW YOUR PAYPAL FUNDS TO YOUR LOCAL BANK ACCOUNT

You can withdraw your PayPal funds to your local bank account in three ways.

1) By using a prepaid card called International high Africard issued by UBA bank. You don't need to have an account with UBA before you can be issued the card. To get the card, go to any nearest UBA branch with your utility bill, a means of identification (National ID, International Passport, or Driver's License) and at least N2,000 cash. The card cost around N1,000 – N2,000. After getting the card, link it to your PayPal account.
